

Assessment 2: Narrative of ePortfolio, CV Valuation, and Recruitment Process

Assessment 2: Narrative of ePortfolio, CV Valuation, and Recruitment Process

Length: 1200 words for ePortfolio + 800 words for CV Valuation, and Recruitment Process +/- 10% (NOT including the cover sheet, the reference list, or the appendix). You will lose 10% for exceeding this and every 100 words over that limit.

Weighting: 30%

Due Date: Week 08 - Friday 21st Aug 2026, 23:59

Penalties for Late Submission

Late submissions of assignments without special consideration or an approved extension will automatically receive a penalty deduction of marks. Late submissions will be penalized at a rate of 10% of the total possible marks for the assessment, per day late, and is calculated on an 'hourly' basis, regardless of whether the submission is seconds or minutes late after the designated deadline. This means that a penalty of 0.42% of the total possible mark for the assessment, per hour, will be applied to a late submission. For example,

Scenario 1: If an assignment is worth 40 marks and is submitted 1 day late, a penalty of 10% or 4 marks will apply. This will be deducted from the assessed mark.

Scenario 2: If an assignment is worth 40 marks and is submitted 30 minutes late, a penalty of 0.42% or 0.17 marks will apply. This will be deducted from the assessment mark.

Scenario 3: If an assignment is worth 40 marks and is submitted 3 hours late, a penalty of 1.26% or 0.5 marks will apply. This will be deducted from the assessment mark.

Assessment Brief

Overview

You will be required to submit a series of elements for this assessment task including:

- Your curated ePortfolio is targeted towards your chosen career direction and has been designed with your prospective audience in mind. Students must share a link to their e-portfolio and write a reflection explaining how their selected projects, experiences, and skills align with their intended career path. In your written reflection, you must also draw on key insights from Dr Seng's presentation on the BBus Graduate Capability Framework, and how the ePortfolio communicates this to a future employer or industry professional.
- Complete reflection on the Career Development Workshop and Industry Partner Talk to demonstrate how you are making a successful transition, moving forward with your personal career strategy.

Marking Criteria

This assessment will measure your ability to:

- Curate Artefacts to Showcase your Personal and Professional Growth (30%)
- Produce Portfolio Reflections and Suggestions for Continued Growth (25%)
- Professionalism (5%)
- Depth of Reflection and Career Strategy (30%)
- Writing (10%)

RMIT Capabilities:

Learning Outcomes

The targeted Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs) for this assessment are:

- CLO1: Curate your personal, reflective Bachelor of Business ePortfolio documenting achievement of the program learning outcomes.
- CLO2: Critically reflect on the various digital artefacts and evidence collected over the course of your degree program in the ePortfolio, to demonstrate the development of your business knowledge, skills and capabilities.
- CLO3: Investigate professional pathways post-graduation, including career goals and objectives and short- and long-term actions to achieve these.
- CLO4: Identify the transferable skills from learning in the Bachelor of Business and how they relate to your personal, educational and career development.
- CLO5: Design a lifelong learning approach that will allow you to continuously adapt your career.

Submission Details

As part of your assessment submission, you will be required to submit the following pieces via Canvas submission electronically:

- 1. Public ePortfolio website URL. The link must open without login or access approval.
- 2. Backup website evidence: submit the final index.html file for an HTML-based site, or a PDF/exported record or clearly labelled screenshots for a no-code site that cannot export HTML.
- 3. The 1200-word ePortfolio narrative as a PDF.
- 4. The 800-word CV Valuation and Recruitment Process component as a PDF, following the supplied template and word-count guidance.
- 5. AI-use acknowledgement, included in the written submission or in the location specified by students.

Note: To submit multiple files or combine them into a 1-PDF file, you need to submit them at the same time

Before submitting, test the public URL in a private or incognito browser window. The marker must be able to access the website directly.

Use of AI and website-building tools

AI tools are permitted for this assessment to support planning, content organisation, drafting and refinement, website architecture, HTML/CSS generation, visual design, revision, accessibility checking and technical troubleshooting.

You remain fully responsible for the accuracy, honesty, originality, privacy and professional quality of the final website and written submission. AI must not invent achievements, grades, responsibilities, metrics, reflections or evidence. You must review and edit all outputs so that they accurately represent your own experience and voice.

Any use of AI must be acknowledged in accordance with the assessment and RMIT academic integrity requirements. Your acknowledgement should briefly identify the tool used and how it supported your work.

Suggested acknowledgement: "I used AI tools to support the planning, drafting, website development and revision of this portfolio. I reviewed and edited the outputs and take responsibility for the accuracy and quality of the final submission."

Support Resources

Assessment Policies

Referencing Guidelines

Use RMIT Harvard  referencing style for this assessment.

You must acknowledge all the sources of information you have used in your assessments.

Refer to the RMIT Easy Cite  referencing tool to see examples and tips on how to reference in the appropriate style. You can also refer to the library referencing page for more tools such as EndNote, referencing tutorials and referencing guides for printing.

Academic Integrity and Plagiarism

Academic integrity  is about the honest presentation of your academic work. It means acknowledging the work of others while developing your own insights, knowledge and ideas.

You should take extreme care that you have:

- Acknowledged words, data, diagrams, models, frameworks and/or ideas of others you have quoted (i.e. directly copied), summarised, paraphrased, discussed or mentioned in your assessment through the appropriate referencing methods
- Provided a reference list of the publication details so your reader can locate the source if necessary. This includes material taken from Internet sites

If you do not acknowledge the sources of your material, you may be accused of plagiarism because you have passed off the work and ideas of another person without appropriate referencing, as if they were your own.

RMIT University treats plagiarism as a very serious offence constituting misconduct.

Plagiarism covers a variety of inappropriate behaviours, including:

- Failure to properly document a source
- Copyright material from the internet or databases
- Collusion between students
